Dear Robert,

Jay & I was wondering if you have any old Partridge Plymouth Rocks, Cockerals & Pullets, you would be interested in selling.

We are down to 1 Rooster & 3 Hens. We have always love these birds.

We had no Duck in hatching this year. We are going to try next Spring once again.

Please call me Home 973-948-6451 or Work - 973-724-3634.

Hope you can help us.

Have a Nice Day,

Celine

2011 Sussex County Poultry Fanciers Spring Show October 22, 2011

Welcome to our 2011 Fall Show. As of the time of this printing, we have 867 birds entered by 107 Exhibitors. There are 190 Large Fowl, 523 Bantam Chickens, 85 Waterfowl, 2 Turkeys and 69 Pigeons. Thank You to everyone who came to support this show.

We will work hard to keep things moving along and to get you on the road at a reasonable time. Please be sensitive to this task and do not coop out before the final awards are given out. We anticipate this to be somewhere between 3 and 4 o'clock.

Junior Show: The junior birds will compete along with the adult birds. You will notice each junior coop card has a bright sticker. After the birds are judged together, the judge will re-evaluate the junior birds only and pick Champions and Reserves of all classes and overall Champions too. In some cases, Best of Breed in junior division will be picked if there is a breed club or donated special.

Sale Cages: All sale cages are in the adjacent pole barn. If you have reserved one already, your name should already be on it. They can be rented still on a first come first serve basis.

See Pete Nieswand or an SCPFA member to reserve yours. They are $ 3.00 per hole. Tail gates sales are permitted with a $ 10 donation to the SCPFA.

Chinese Raffle: Donations to our raffle can still be made. See Janet and at the raffle area she will help you. Please understand this raffle plays a large part in helping to support this and future shows. Your participation is appreciated. The raffle drawing will begin somewhere around 1 pm depending on the judging progress.

Awards: There will be short awards ceremony after the raffle which should conclude our show. Please do not coop out your birds until we have presented the awards.

Ribbon Table: Once prizes are awarded, you can bring up your coop cards to the Ribbon Table where there will be someone to help you with your ribbons(1st, 2nd, 3rd) and rosettes (BB and RB). Best of Breed and Reserve of Breed.

Junior Activities: Teresa McGayhey will conduct the junior table. You can sign up for Showmanship here. She will have the details. She will also conduct some fun buzzer games and BINGO for all. Be sure to visit her. If you choose to participate in showmanship, please bring your bird to her area and be sure that the bird is not in the regular show as it could miss its judging opportunity.

Photos: We have a blue photo booth set near champion row. Please be sure to visit the photographer to have your bird's photo taken. All birds wishing to appear in Poultry Press must take an ad of support.

($8 - $ 50). Remember, in order for your bird to be included in the press, you must take an ad of support. The SCPFA does receive a percentage of ads taken, so please consider this as we like to have our show included in the press as it is a good way to attract new fanciers who may not know about what we have to offer.

A very special THANK YOU goes to our panel of judges:: S Robert Powell, Dwight Scott, Richard Hickman, Bill Post. Thank You gentlemen for making our day fun! Thank you all for coming.

10-23-2011-1 Sussex County Poultry
Fancier Show, 10/22/2011

Bob Simon rode down with me; he came to the Homestead, and we left here at 530 A.M. Seventy miles down — we got there about 7:15 AM.
Very long drive. There were close to 900 birds in the show, and there were four judges: S.R.P., Bill Post, Dwight Scott, and Richard Hickman.

With Judi Sartell as my clerk,
I judged the following classes:

American — Champion:
White Rock pullet
Reserve:
Barn Rock cockerel

Asiatic — Champion
Light Brahma pullet

The 78th show that I have judged and gratified

I was very pleased to see the White Leghorn pullet that I selected named the Grand Champion of the show. also the success of the Wheater Shamo hen was very gratifying. The Shamo hen was a sensation / show stopper in the row of Champions. She is owned by Jim Zook, who was thrilled to see her on Champions' row. There will, I'm sure, be a lot of internet "talk" about her win.

Guy Roy, who is a very advanced and knowledgeable breeder of Plymouth Rocks, owned the Champion & reserve

10-23-2011-4 Champion American—and he was very pleased to see two of his birds on Champions' row. He sought me out later on in the day and said: "You did a very good job of judging."
That pleased me a great deal.
The opinion of Knowledgeable & sophisticated breeders and exhibitors means a great deal to me.

I had a grand time judging:
did lots of comparative judging: line up all of the Best of Breed birds in a sequence of cages and then select the Class Champions.
It's a very useful and 10-23-2011-5 helpful process / technique for the judge, and, the best part of it, the exhibitors love it.

The day flew by. Before I knew it, it was 4 P.M. and we judges were selecting the show champions. By 7 P.M., we were back in Carbondale.

Very enjoyable & gratifying day.
I was the "senior" judge of the group, as it turns out. As judges, we got a lot of special treatment by the exhibitors and show management.
